Dear FOI Applicant,

Thank you for your freedom of information request received in this office on 2 March 2026 in which you asked:

'For the period 1 January 2024 to 31 August 2025, please provide:

 Any meeting records (invites, agendas, minutes or notes) of meetings between OPCC and MIA Property Group, Zayma Ltd, or individuals acting for the purchaser.*

 Any contact reports or meeting notes held by OPCC summarising discussions with MIA Property Group, Zayma Ltd or purchaser representatives.*

 Any document held by OPCC recording or summarising engagement with the purchaser side in relation to the Ladywood Police Station disposal (for example briefing notes, engagement summaries or similar).'*

In response to your request, I can confirm the following:

We do not hold any meeting records of meetings between OPCC and MIA Property Group, Zayma Ltd, or individuals acting for the purchaser.

We do not hold any contact reports or meeting notes held by OPCC summarising discussions with MIA Property Group, Zayma Ltd or purchaser representatives.

We do not hold any documents recording or summarising engagement with the purchaser side in relation to the Ladywood Police Station disposal (for example briefing notes, engagement summaries or similar).'

The OPCC has no record of any correspondence with the above named people. All communication surrounding police estate sales is done by West Midlands Police. The only involvement that the OPCC has in police estate sales is the final stage, which is the PCC approving the decision.

In order to be of some assistance, please see the following contact details should you wish to submit your request to West Midlands Police.

Freedom of Information Right of Appeal

Any person who has requested information from the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner (OPCC) and is unhappy with the way their request for information has been handled can request a review of their case.

A request for review must be made in writing by letter or email. You should include the reference number of your request if you have it, and outline why you are requesting the review to:

Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner
Lloyd House
Birmingham
B4 6NQ

Telephone: 0121 626 6060
Email: wmpcc@west-midlands.pnn.police.uk

All requests for review will be recorded. Receipt of a request for internal review will be acknowledged and the appellant informed of an estimated date for determining the outcome. The OPCC will attempt to respond to internal reviews as soon as practicable and in any case within two months.

All investigations will be undertaken by someone not involved in the original response.

The result of any internal review will be communicated to the appellant outlining the decisions taken.

If you remain dissatisfied with the handling of your request or complaint, you have a right to appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

Telephone: 08456 30 60 60 or 01625 54 57 45
Website: www.ico.gov.uk

There is no charge for making a request for internal review or appeal to the Information Commissioner.

Yours sincerely,

Alethea Fuller
Deputy Chief Executive
